

This is far-out fare.

#THISISIOWA

Sexual Chocolate French Toast or a Fried Egg Sundae? When it comes to uncommon eats, Iowa takes the cake. Nosh on Chocolate-Covered-Chunky-Bacon-Maple-Nougat, one of more than 70 foods served on a stick at the Iowa State Fair. Or settle in with your sweetie to savor whiskey-infused chocolate covered cherries. Leave room for the famous Gunderburger, a one pound burger made with all the fixin's, and your edible escape is complete.

Looking for restaurants unique to Iowa?
Discover unexpected food and trip ideas at traveliowa.com travel

IOWA[®]
TRAVELIOWA.COM

BOONE

Got a thirst for Family Fun? Boone County boasts a tasty variety of attractions and activities for everyone, like the famous High Trestle Trail Bridge, the Boone & Scenic Valley Railroad, Seven Oaks Recreation, and Ledges State Park. Plus irresistible local dining options from snacks to a sit down meal!

boonelowa.us | 800.266.6312

BURLINGTON

Greater Burlington is home to an assortment of restaurants designed to satisfy any taste and budget. Whether you crave a relaxed, elegant meal at a fine restaurant or a quick meal at a national chain, you won't leave hungry.

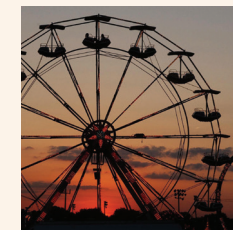

visitburlingtoniowa.com | 319.752.6365

DES MOINES

Catch a craving. Catch a taste-of-place. With many diverse foodie neighborhoods throughout the city, visitors are sure to leave satisfied. From locally-owned restaurants to locally-grown foods. Catch food festivals. Beer tours. A traditional Italian dish or award-winning BBQ. Des Moines challenges the taste buds to experience the unexpected.

catchdesmoines.com | 800.451.2625

IOWA STATE FAIR

The Iowa State Fair features hundreds of mouth-watering foods, the world-famous butter cow, thousands of animals, and over $500,000 of free entertainment. Experience why it inspired a novel and is listed in 1,000 Places to See Before You Die. Join us August 13-23, 2015, in Des Moines.

iowastatefair.org | 800.545.FAIR

IOWA WINE AND BEER

Let's raise our glasses to sipping something unexpected. To exploring Iowa's countryside in search of wineries that pique our palates. To bellying up to Iowa's breweries and tasting what's on tap. To keeping it local and drinking from our backyard. Let's sip outside the box.

iowawineandbeer.com | 515.725.3084

MARSHALLTOWN

Make Marshalltown your culinary destination. Dine on locally raised meats and produce at one of our restaurants or enjoy a one of a kind beverage at the Iowa River Brewing Company. You will also want to check out our weekly farmer's market. Marshalltown has what you're craving!

visitmarshalltown.com | 800.697.3155

OKOBOJI

Blue water lakes, Arnolds Park Amusement Park, and some of the most unique dining opportunities in Northwest Iowa! From locally brewed beer, to restaurants that offer everything from fresh seafood to hand-carved steaks, even Teppanyaki. Pack your swimsuit, sunglasses, and appetite because summer isn't summer without a getaway to Okoboji.

vacationokoboji.com | 800.270.2574

